

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Dakota Maverick Moore did, on May 6, 1988, add to the population of the United States by becoming its newest citizen; and,

WHEREAS, Dakota Maverick Moore, in his infant wisdom, chose Randy and Debbi for parents and Clint, Todd and Tres for brothers, fine people who have eagerly awaited the arrival of their son and brother; and,

WHEREAS, Showing further insight into the ways of the world, Dakota chose a family of loving grandparents--Mr. R. E. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cobern; and,

WHEREAS, Dakota will develop into a stalwart citizen of the State of Texas; and,

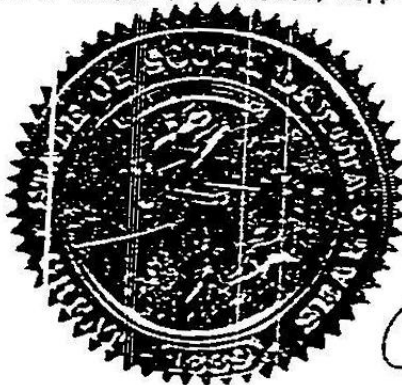

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor of one of the Dakotas to make note of this foremost occasion in the lives of these Texas citizens; and,

WHEREAS, Becoming a new member of a family certainly qualifies as the foremost occasion in everyone's life:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 6, 1988, and May 6 of every year hence as in South Dakota, and I join Dakota's many new friends and relatives in wishing him a lifetime of health, happiness and prosperity.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

George S. Mickelson
GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
